

Freedom

Rest in Peace...October 2005

Freedom was a lovely paint mare rescued with her baby, Thera, at her side. She was a wonderful mother and good friend to her people. Her heart was full of love and compassion. Freedom stayed strong long enough to protect her baby in the most difficult of times and make sure that she was safe and loved.

Freedom's spirit lives on in the heart and soul of her baby, Thera and those who loved her best, Dawn, Toree, and Caiden
